

MANCHESTER VS CAIRO

Year 2

Geography

Manchester

- Located in England, Europe
- Located in the Northern hemisphere
- Manchester was the world's first industrial city
- The climate is typically warm in summer and cold in winter

Human Features (man-made): shops, arena, factories, farms, houses, flats, offices, stadiums

Physical Features (natural): rivers

Physical Features (natural): rivers

Vocabulary

Climate— weather conditions observed over a period of time

Northern hemisphere— the half of Earth that is north of the Equator.

Southern hemisphere— the half of the Earth that is South of the Equator.

Physical geography— naturally exists in nature

Human geography— man-made; wouldn't exist without being constructed by a human

Cairo

- Located in Egypt, Africa
- Located in the Northern hemisphere
- The River Nile runs through Cairo
- The climate is hot and humid wind storms are also common

Human Features (man-made): shops, arena, factories, farms, houses, flats, offices, pyramids, stadium.

Physical Features (natural): rivers, deserts

